

Dear Friends,

We are delighted to present to you the next edition of our newsletter. This quarter, SAMRIDH announced important partnerships with Axis Bank and Atal Innovation Mission (AIM) and Women Entrepreneurship Platform (WEP), NITI Aayog to build an enabling healthcare ecosystem with better access to affordable capital and technical assistance. We also led initiatives to acknowledge the importance of investing in women-owned enterprises through multi-sectoral partnerships and creating an enabling environment for women entrepreneurs.

USAID's support to SAMRIDH reflects the United States' strong commitment to help health enterprises access affordable capital and scale high impact health solutions to improve services for India's vulnerable populations. Through SAMRIDH, USAID is identifying and fast-tracking the deployment of solutions to some of the most pressing healthcare challenges posed by the COVID-19 pandemic. We are confident that SAMRIDH will not only inspire more private players as well as traditional funding agencies to invest in efforts that bring the possibility of both social and financial returns. In addition, a healthier population will be better able to take advantage of emerging economic opportunities and contribute productively to India's continued growth.

RECENT PARTNERSHIPS
